NOTED PRISONER.

Mrs. Chadwick From Now On Will Be Rigidly Excluded From All Visitors.

INCLUDES HER SON AND NURSE.

They, However, Can See Her on the Written Order of United States Marshal Chandler.

The Jailer of Cuyahoga County Is Inclined to Ignore the Latter Order of Judge Wing and May Exclude Them.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 17.—Mrs. Chadwick will, from now until the time of her trial or arraignment in court, be rigidly excluded from all visitors, and even her son and nurse will be denied permission to see her except on the written order of United States Marshal Chandler.

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock an order was received at the jail by Sheriff Barry directing him to deny all people the privilege of seeing her, and he at once ordered that the nurse, Freda Swanson, who was then in the jail with Mrs. Chadwick, be ordered to leave. This action was in direct opposition to an order of United States Marshal Chandler, issued Thursday, in which he directed that Emil Hoover, the son of Mrs. Chadwick, and the nurse should be admitted at any time to see Mrs. Chadwick.

Authorities Clash.

"The order applies to them as well as to anybody else," said the sheriff, "and I will ignore the order of Marshal Chandler. This is a county jail and the federal authorities have nothing to say about its administration. If they don't like the way I run it, I guess they can take their prisoners to some other jail."

Sheriff Barry has done everything possible for the comfort of Mrs. Chadwick and the implication carried by Judge Wing's order that he was allowing too many people to see her was not pleasing to him.

"Young Hoover and the nurse have been making trouble ever since Mrs. Chadwick has been here," he added. "They have been saying that too many people were allowed to see Mrs. Chadwick, and now I think that they will keep out of here themselves."

Nurse Ordered Out of the Jail.

Turning to a deputy, he repeated his orders to have the nurse leave the jail at once, and a few minutes later Miss Swanson passed through the sheriff's office on her way to the street.

Sheriff Barry further declared that no visitors to Mrs. Chadwick would be permitted to see her except in the regular visiting hours at the jail, which are 1 to 3 o'clock on every day except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

The order of Judge Wing put a period to the episodes at the jail and her attorneys declared Friday afternoon that there would be no further developments in the legal end of the case until Mrs. Chadwick was brought into the courts either for arraignment or trial.

In the Bankruptcy Court.

Receiver Loeser has been trying for several days to arrange the time at which he would summon Mrs. Chadwick into the bankruptcy court, but her attorneys will oppose this, and will object to any questions being put to her before she is called for trial. Any attempt to have her answer questions that may prejudice her case will be opposed, and it was asserted with confidence by one of them that nothing more will be done in the case until March.

M. F. Bramley, a wealthy contractor, called on Mrs. Chadwick just prior to the receipt of Judge Wing's order with Sheldon Q. Kerruish, one of Mrs. Chadwick's attorneys. He was asked if he was going to give bail for her, and said he was not. When asked if he intended to furnish money for the expenses of her defense, he laughed, and would make no reply.

Mr. Wack is a member of the National Bar association of this country and of the Royal Geographical Society of London.

Accompanied by his lawyer, Charles M. Beattie, Mr. Wack called at the office of District Attorney Jerome and left there his formal application that Mr. Lawson be indicted.

Mr. Wack says that he owns outright 1,000 shares of Amalgamated, and that it was worth when he came here a few weeks ago $81,780.

As a result of Mr. Lawson's acts, Mr. Wack asserted, his stocks fell to 59 and he suffered a loss of approximately $21,000. Mr. Wack asks that a demand be made on the Amalgamated Co. for its books, to ascertain just what its stock is worth, and if Lawson's declaration proves false, he wants him indicted under chapter 435 of the code, third sub-division, which provides that any person who knowingly circulates a false rumor, statement or intelligence against a stock is punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than three years, or both.

The audience hooted the man who had shouted and ushers tried to find him, but failed. Then the audience applauded until Archbishop Ireland resumed his speech.

Letters from Grover Cleveland, Carl Schurz and John Mitchell were read. Letters from Andrew Carnegie and Gen. Nelson A. Miles were also read, after which Bishop Henry C. Potter was introduced and spoke briefly. In conclusion he said:

"I hope that the resolutions which this noble meeting shall pass to-night may have in them a fine note of ringing comment and that senators of the United States will understand that it is the mind of the intelligent people in this great metropolis that war shall cease."

Resolutions Passed.

The following resolution was passed: Whereas, The method of settling international disputes and difficulties by arbitration rather than by force is in accord with the highest prospects of reason and humanity; and,

ONE REPUBLICAN VOTE AGAINST IT

The Bill Exempts From Taxation All Bonds Issued by the Philippine and Porto Rico Governments.

Authorizes the Philippine Government to Incur a Bonded Indebtedness of $5,000,000 For Improvements at 4-1/2 Per Cent Interest.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Senate.—The senate Friday, by a vote of 44 to 23, passed the Philippine civil government bill. The most notable change made during the day was the lowering of the rate of interest on railroad bonds to be guaranteed by the Philippine government from 5 to 4 per cent. The bill as passed exempts from taxation all bonds issued by the Philippine and Porto Rican governments; authorizes the Philippine government to incur a bonded indebtedness of $5,000,000 for improvements at 4 1/2 per cent. interest; authorizes the Philippine government to guarantee the payment of interest on railroad bonds at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum; provides for the administration of the immigration laws by the Philippine authorities; establishes a system for the location and patenting of mineral, coal and saline lands; fixes the metric system for the islands and gives the civil governor the title of governor general.
